Prelude

Call To Worship

One: My God! My God, why have you left me all alone? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my anguished groans?

All: My God, I cry out during the day, but you don't answer, even at nighttime I don't stop.

One: You are the holy one, enthroned. You are Israel's praise.

All: Our ancestors trusted you, they trusted you and you rescued them;

One: They cried out to you and they were saved; they trusted you and they weren't ashamed. Please don't be far from me, because trouble is near, and there's no one to help.

All: My strength is dried up like a piece of broken pottery.

One: My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth;

All: You've set me down in the dirt of death.

Crown Him With Many Crowns

Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne,
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King
through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife
for those he came to save.
His glories now we sing,
who died, and rose on high,
who died, eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of peace,
whose power a scepter sways
from pole to pole, that wars may cease,
and all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end,
and round his pierced feet fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of love;
behold his hands and side,
those wounds, yet visible above,
in beauty glorified.
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me;
thy praise and glory shall not fail
throughout eternity.

Would I Have Answered When You Called

Would I have answered when you called,
“Come follow, follow me!?”
Would I at once have left behind
both work and family?
Or would the old, familiar round
have held me by its claim and kept the spark within my heart
from bursting into flame?

Would I have followed where you led through ancient Galilee,
on roads unknown, by ways untried,
beyond security?
Or would I soon have hurried back where home and comfort drew,
where truth you taught would not disturb the ordered world I knew?

Would I have matched my step with yours
when crowds cried, “Crucify!”
when on a rocky hill I saw a cross against the sky?
Or would I too have slipped away
and left you there alone,
a dying king with crown of thorns
upon a terrible throne?

O Christ, I cannot search my heart
through all its tangled ways, nor can I with a certain mind
my steadfastness appraise.
I only pray that when you call,
“Come, follow, follow me!”
you’ll give me strength beyond my own
to follow faithfully.

Hear Our Praises

May our homes be filled with dancing
May our streets be filled with joy
May injustice bow to Jesus
As the people turn to pray

[Chorus]
From the mountains to the valleys
Hear our praises rise to You
From the heavens to the nations
Hear our singing fill the air

May Your light shine in the darkness
As we walk before the cross
May Your glory fill the whole earth
As the water o'er seas

[Chorus] x2

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah

[Chorus] x2
