THE GATHERING

Welcome and Opportunities for Ministry

Prelude

Call To Worship

One: Give thanks to the Lord because he is good, because his faithful love lasts forever.

All: Let Israel say it: "God's faithful love lasts forever."

One: Open the gates of righteousness for me so I can come in and give thanks to the Lord!

All: This is the Lord's gate; those who are righteous enter through it.

One: I thank you because you answered me, because you were my saving help.

All: The stone rejected by the builders is now the main foundation stone!

One: This has happened because of the Lord; it is astonishing in our sight!

All: This is the day the Lord acted; we will rejoice and celebrate in it!

One: You are my God---I will give thanks to you! You are my God---I will lift you up high!

All: Give thanks to the Lord because he is good, because his faithful love lasts forever.

Opening Song Hosanna, Loud Hosanna, the Little Children Sang UMH 278

A Palm Sunday Litany

Pastor: Sisters and brothers of the faith, adopt the attitude that was in Christ Jesus.

All: Our faith is in the Lord, the Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer of our faith.

Pastor: Sisters and brothers of the faith, put your hope in the One who gives life.

All: Our hope is in the Lord, the One who renews, revives, and restores us.

Pastor: Sisters and brothers of the faith, when it seems dark and dreary, we have a light that always shines.

All: At the name of Jesus, let every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory and honor of the Lord's Holy Name. Amen.

Hosanna, Loud Hosanna,
the Little Children Sang

Hosanna, loud hosanna,
the little children sang;
through pillared court and temple
the lovely anthem rang.

To Jesus, who had blessed them
close folded to his breast,
the children sang their praises,
the simplest and the best.

From Olivet they followed
mid an exultant crowd,
the victor palm branch waving,
and chanting clear and loud.
The Lord of earth and heaven
rode on in lowly state,
nor scorned that little children
should on his bidding wait.

"Hosanna in the highest!"
that ancient song we sing,
for Christ is our Redeemer,
the Lord of heaven our King.
O may we ever praise him
with heart and life and voice,
and in his blissful presence
eternally rejoice!

Lord, Speak to Me, that I May Speak 463

Lord, speak to me, that I may speak
in living echoes of thy tone;
as thou hast sought, so let me seek thine erring children lost and lone.

O strengthen me, that while I stand firm on the rock, and strong in thee,
I may stretch out a loving hand
to wrestlers with the troubled sea.

O teach me, Lord, that I may teach
the precious things thou dost impart;
and wing my words, that they may reach
the hidden depths of many a heart.

O fill me with thy fullness, Lord,
until my very heart o'erflow
in kindling thought and glowing word,
thy love to tell, thy praise to show.

O use me, Lord, use even me,
just as thou wilt, and when, and where,
until thy blessed face I see,
thy rest, thy joy, thy glory share.

We Sang Our Glad Hosannas 2111

We sang our glad hosannas and waved our branches high,
but some were silent, frowning, as Jesus wrote on by.
They sought a royal Savior, but did not understand
a king could rule by loving instead of by command.

We heard an angry Jesus in temple courts declare,
“Be gone, you money changers! This is a house of prayer.”
Though many came for healing and stayed to hear his word,
still others, hostile, plotted and thus his death assured.

We served him at the table with wine, unleavened bread.
“The one who will betray me now eats with me,” he said.
His friends would not believe him, but one by one that night,
as soldiers came to take him, they scurried out of sight.

We saw a suffering Jesus alone, without a friend,
and heard the voices shouting abuse until the end.
We wept as we stood watching love’s light grow dim and die, and cried, “Why did this happen? God, tell us, tell us why!”
